

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Living in an area where the variety of local-based media outlets is already limited (mainly because of geography and population density), we do not need to open the door for further consolidation. I support a broad range of media options representing diverse points of view.
